FROM THE WORTHING JOURNAL...

'A member of All Saints Church, Findon Valley, recently attended a service at St George's Church, East Worthing.

The visitor observed: "Although I was a little unsure of what I might be letting myself in for, I found that they did not have two heads but were extremely welcoming and hospitable.

" I even knew most of the hymns too, which I admit came as a little surprise as I thought they were going to be ultra modern." ' March 2016
