REDEVELOPEMENT PLANS

The PCC are pleased to say that the Diocese has finally approved our plans for new flooring, chairs and audio-visual and we can apply to the Chancellor for the legal permission to carry out the work.

First a notice must be displayed outside the church for 28 days, outlining the plans. This is to allow anyone with an interest to make comment. During this time there will be a small display in church, and the plans will be available in the office for inspection (by arrangement with Helen A). After that, and taking note of any comments made, the Diocesan Chancellor will make the final decision on what work we can go ahead with.

PARISH GIVING SCHEME [PGS]

PGS is an effective way to donate to St Georges on a monthly basis, as an alternative to giving by way of the collection plate. You remain in complete control of the amount you wish to donate regularly and can stop future payments whenever you wish to do so. PGS helps St Georges by simplifying the accounts, aids budgeting and improves our cash-flow, as Gift Aid is calculated and reclaimed automatically [remember gift aid equates to 25% extra at no cost to you on eligible donations!!]. If you want to find out more, please speak to Laura or Helen A today.

MISSION SUPPORT RESEARCHERS

Volunteer internet researchers are needed to help the development of support programmes for overseas Church and mission led community development. Topics to be researched include renewable energy options, sanitation, clean water, healthcare, inequality and food security. For background please look over the new Worthing charity website (formerly Aid for Trade): www.communitydevelopment.net and if you could be interested to help for just a few hours a week please contact Mike Tyler: office@communitydevelopment.net tel:242499

THE ORDER OF ST RICHARD

For the first time, the Diocese is making an annual award, the Order of St. Richard. The award recognises a lay persons contribution to a parish and the diocese. Each year 40 people are chosen from nominations by parishes. Brian, Ron, and Chris nominated me. The Bishop has informed me I am to be one of the forty. I will receive it (being a very nice medal) in the Cathedral on 5th October. I have no idea what the nomination said about me. Like you, I only try to do my best in His service. Thank you St. George's.

John Bridger.

Please note...

there is NO Posh Nosh in July.

Posh Nosh will return on Wednesday 28th August
